

Field Visit: Cambodia

While in Cambodia, the Kiwanis and UNICEF team visited a few villages to observe the MNT elimination efforts taking place there. Here are a few thoughts Avanti Kollarum, CKI member and UNICEF ambassador for The Eliminate Project, shared with us.

"Today we stopped by one of the clinics hosted by two of the UNICEF-trained villagers. The dynamic here was a little different from the village we visited yesterday. Here, there was more yelling and it was more personal. For example, there was one woman that walked by that hadn't had her vaccinations yet and the village was yelling to call her over so she could get vaccinated.

As we were visiting and talking with them, the ice cream man came around! Randy saw it and wanted all of the kids to have ice cream, so we handed out these little popsicles to everyone. It made them so happy! Once about 40 kids had ice cream, the ice cream man said it was >>>>>
